PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Practical information

When does the Three Kings experience take place?

It takes place around 5 and 6 January, the feast of the Epiphany. Tell us your dates when you book and we will arrange it.

What does the meeting with the Three Kings include?

Welcome tea, the arrival of Melchior, Caspar and Balthazar among the dunes, gifts for the children and photos with the Kings.

Which trip suits me: the 3-day or the 5-day one?

The Errachidia trip is the shortest and simplest if you fly into Errachidia; the Ouarzazate one fits if you are already there; and the Grand Three Kings Journey turns the celebration into a complete holiday through the south of Morocco.

Yes, it is designed for families: the gifts and the photos with the Kings are for the little ones, and the pace of the trip adapts to them.

Yes, winter nights in Merzouga are cold; we use camps with blankets and recommend warm clothing, especially for the children.

Can the itinerary or the dates be changed?
